9. Smoking is not allowed in the technical area.
10. FBSSL shall provide training grounds for the teams. These training grounds shall be approved by FIFA. They shall be in good condition, situated near the team hotel and made available at least five days before the opening match of the final competition until one day after the team's last match in the World Cup.
11. As from five (5) days prior to the first match of the final competition and up until their elimination, the Participating Member Associations shall use only those training sites which have been officially designated for training by FIFA. If a team's preparation site is used as an official training site, par. 13 will apply.

Depending on the air contracts negotiated between FIFA and the airline(s), FIFA will decide on the weight of excess baggage for which FIFA will bear the costs, and will inform the Participating Member Associations accordingly. In the case of transit stops during travel to and/or from the host country, FIFA will, subject to prior approval, bear the costs for the bus transfer from the airport to the hotel and back, as well as accommodation and meals for the Delegation Members. All additional costs and expenses shall be borne by the Participating Member Association concerned.

These rooms shall be available for the number of nights prior to the opening match as specified in the Technical Rules for the Final Competition until one night (two nights, if an earlier departure is not possible) after the last match of the Participating Member Association concerned. The FIFA Organising Committee may make exceptions in the event of unforeseen circumstances resulting from transport difficulties.
 - c) laundry service of the official delegation of each Participating Member Association for the match kits and one set of training kits per day for the number of days prior to the opening match as specified in the Technical Rules for the Final Competition until the day of the last match of the respective Participating Member Association in the final competition.

II. TECHNICAL RULES FOR THE FINAL COMPETITION

Article 17 Number of teams, arrival at venue

Only official team hotels under contract with either FIFA or FBSSL shall be used for the teams' accommodation.  - c) all players shall have undergone medical examinations and have been approved for participation in the World Cup by the team's medical authority.

2. Any team that is found guilty of fielding an ineligible player shall forfeit the match in question. Victory and the resultant three points shall be awarded to the opposing team as well as the score of 10-0, or greater, depending on the score of the match. The FIFA Organising Committee is the competent body to decide in this regard. Decisions taken by the FIFA Organising Committee are final and binding and not subject to appeal.

Article 19 Playerlists and official delegation lists

1. Each Participating Member Association shall submit a provisional list of players (a minimum of two (2) of whom shall be goalkeepers) to the FIFA general secretariat, accompanied by copies of the passport of each player appearing on the list. Further specifics of the provisional list, including the number of players allowed on the list and the deadline by which the list shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, will be stipulated in the relevant circular.

II. TECHNICAL RULES FOR THE FINAL COMPETITION

2. The final team list of the 12 players (two of whom shall be goalkeepers) selected to participate in the final competition shall be submitted to the FIFA general secretariat, using the official form, at least ten working days before the opening match of the final competition, as stipulated in the relevant circular. The players on the final team list must be chosen from the players on the provisional list. The final team list shall be accompanied, at a minimum, by the following information:

The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the final team list. In the event of a goalkeeper needing to be replaced by an outfield player (due to injuries or red cards), each team shall provide a goalkeeper jersey without a number displayed on the back of the shirt in order to distinguish this replacement goalkeeper from the other players.
4. A player listed on the final team list may be replaced only in the event of serious injury up until 24 hours before the kick-off of his team's first match. Such replacements must be approved in writing by the FIFA Sports Medical Committee upon receipt and acceptance of a written detailed medical assessment. The FIFA Sports Medical Committee will issue a certificate stating that the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from taking part in the FIFA Beach Soccer World Cup and hand over such certificate to the FIFA Organising Committee for approval. Upon approval, the association shall immediately nominate a replacement and inform the FIFA general secretariat accordingly.
5. The final list of 12 players will be published by the FIFA general secretariat. This final list of 12 players plus four officials (one of whom must be a medical officer) will constitute the official delegation list.

6. Before the start of the final competition, all players on the final list must prove their identity, nationality and age by producing their legally valid individual passport with photograph (stating day, month and year of birth). Every player and every team official must also sign a declaration of compliance wherein they agree to submit to these regulations. Any player or team official who fails to submit and sign these documents will not be allowed to take part in the final competition.
7. All 12 players shall be named on the playerlist for each match. Not more than 11 people (four officials and seven substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. A suspended player may not sit on the substitutes' bench.
8. FIFA shall issue each player and team official with an official accreditation bearing a photograph. Each Participating Member Association will receive a maximum of 16 accreditations (12 for the listed players and four for their officials).

1. The final competition will be played in a group stage, followed by two knockout stages, the play-off for third place and the final.
2. FIFA will divide the 16 teams into four groups by seeding and drawing lots in public, whilst taking sporting and geographic factors into consideration as far as possible. FIFA's decisions regarding group formation are final.

6. A fair play contest will be held during the final competition, (cf. Appendix). The FIFA Organising Committee will determine the ranking at the end of the final competition. Such decisions are final.
7. At the conclusion of the World Cup, the following special awards will be presented:

The FIFA Fair Play Trophy, a fair play medal for each player and official, a diploma and a voucher for USD 10,000 worth of beach soccer equipment (to be used for beach soccer development) will be presented to the team finishing first in the fair play contest. The applicable rules are in the fair play contest regulations.

- b) Golden Shoe
The Golden Shoe will be awarded to the player who scores the most goals in the final competition. If two or more players score the same number of goals, the number of assists (as determined by members of the FIFA Technical Study Group) will be decisive. Each goal is worth three points and each assist one point.
If two or more players are still equal after taking into account the number of assists, the total minutes played in the final competition will be taken into account, with the player playing fewer minutes ranked first.
A Silver Shoe and a Bronze Shoe for the second and third highest goalscorers will also be awarded.
- c) Golden Ball
The Golden Ball will be awarded to the best player in the final competition on the basis of a vote taken among the media accredited for the final competition. A Silver Ball and a Bronze Ball will be awarded to the second and third best players.
8. There are no official awards other than those listed above, unless otherwise decided by the FIFA Organising Committee.

Fair play contest regulations

I. General provisions

1. As part of its campaign to promote fair play, FIFA regularly holds a fair play contest during its championships, based on an appraisal of the teams' conduct by a FIFA delegate such as the match commissioner, a member of the Technical Study Group or a member of a standing committee.
2. The objective of fair play activities is to foster a sporting spirit among players, team officials and spectators, thereby heightening the fans' enjoyment of the game.
3. At the final whistle of each game, the delegate shall complete the appropriate fair play form after consulting the referee and the referee assessor.
4. Every match in the final competition shall be taken into account.
5. The FIFA Organising Committee shall compile and publish the classification at the end of the final competition. Its decision is final.
6. FIFA will award the team that wins the fair play contest a trophy, a medal for each player and official, and a diploma, all of which the team can keep permanently. The team shall also receive a voucher valued at USD 10,000, which shall be exchanged for a supply of beach soccer equipment to be used exclusively for beach soccer development.

II. Assessment criteria

7. The assessment form contains six criteria by which the teams' fair play performance shall be judged, stressing the positive aspects rather than negative. As a general rule, maximum points shall only be awarded if the team concerned displays a positive attitude.
8. Red and yellow cards shall be deducted from a maximum of 10 points:
 - first yellow card: minus 1 point
 - second yellow/indirect red card: minus 3 points
 - direct red card: minus 3 points
 - yellow card & direct red card: minus 4 pointsRed and yellow cards are the only criteria entailing minus points.

9. Positive play
Minimum 1 point
Maximum 10 points
The aim of this criterion is to reward attacking and attractive play, and shall take into account such aspects as:
 - a) Positive aspects
 - attacking rather than defensive tactics;
 - speeding up the game;
 - constantly attempting to score even if the desired result (e.g. qualification) has already been achieved.
 - b) Negative aspects
 - tactics that rely on rough play;
 - play-acting;
 - time-wasting, etc.

As a general rule, positive play is correlated with the number of scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

10. Respect towards the opponent
 Minimum 1 point
 Maximum 5 points

 Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations and opponents, etc.
 When assessing the players' behaviour towards the opponents, duplication of the judgment for red and yellow cards should be avoided. However, the delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards as well as those overlooked by the referee. Assessment shall be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than on infringements. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards opponents shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

11. Respect towards the referee/match officials

 Minimum 1 point
 Maximum 5 points

 Players are expected to respect the match officials and the decisions they take.
 A positive attitude towards the referee, including acceptance of decisions without protest, shall be rewarded. Behaviour that is basically faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture towards the match officials shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

12. Behaviour of the team officials

 Minimum 1 point
 Maximum 5 points

 Coaches and other team officials are expected to encourage the sporting, technical, tactical and ethical standards of their team and to direct the players to behave in accordance with the principles of fair play. Both positive and negative factors in the behaviour of the team officials shall be included in the assessment, such as for instance whether they calm down angry players or how they accept the referee's decisions. Inciting or provoking players shall be rated negatively. Cooperation with the media shall also be a factor in the assessment. Behaviour that is faultless but does not outwardly show any particularly positive attitude or gesture shall be given a mark of 4 rather than 5.

13. Behaviour of the crowd

Minimum 1 point

Maximum 5 points

The crowd is considered to be an integral part of a beach soccer match. Fans can contribute to the positive atmosphere of a match by encouraging their team by cheering and singing etc. in the spirit of fair play.

Spectators are, however, expected to respect the opponents and the referee. They should appreciate the opponents' performance regardless of the result and in no way intimidate or frighten opponents, the referee or the opponents' supporters.

The maximum number of points (5) may only be awarded if all these requirements have been satisfied, especially as regards creating a positive atmosphere.

This criterion is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible "n.a." (not applicable) shall be entered under this item.

III. Final assessment

14. The final assessment of a team is obtained as follows:

- a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team A:
 $8 + 7 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 4 = 31$
- b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (40):
 $31 \div 40 = 0.775$
- c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000: $0.775 \times 1,000 = 775$
If, however, the number of fans supporting a certain team is negligible and the "behaviour of the crowd" criterion consequently disregarded ("n.a." – cf. §13 above), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Thus the final assessment would be attained as follows:

- a) the points awarded are added together, e.g. for team B:
 $7 + 8 + 2 + 5 + 2 = 24$
 - b) this total is divided by the maximum number of points possible (35):
 $24 \div 35 = 0.686$
 - c) this figure is multiplied by 1,000 = 686
- The overall assessment of a team during the final competition shall be calculated by adding the points attained at each match and dividing this figure by the number of matches played.

APPENDIX

15. Teams that are eliminated after the group stage of the final competition shall be excluded from the fair play contest.
16. In addition to making the assessment, members of FIFA may give a short oral account of the teams' fair play performance to explain the positive and negative factors, which form the basis of their assessment. The account may also point out any outstanding gestures of fair play from a player, official, referee or any other person. However, no additional points shall be awarded for this reason.
17. These regulations have been approved by the FIFA Organising Committee.

These regulations have been ratified by the FIFA Executive Committee and come into force immediately.
